

DRESSAGE TASMANIA

SOUTHERN ZONE

July Training Day

Saturday 20 July | Tasmanian Equestrian Centre, Lauderdale

Entries close 14 July at 11pm - no late entries will be accepted.

For questions and help, please contact dressagetassouth@gmail.com

Training days are a fun and friendly opportunity to get down to TEC outside of competition days.

All sessions are run by EA qualified coaches, with the exception of Judge Protocol sessions which are run by EA judges

What's on offer?

- Judge Protocol sessions - in this 30 minute session you will ride a test of your choice, which will be judged by an EA judge and feedback given on how to improve the riding of the test with the view to gaining more marks. After discussion, the judge may ask the rider to ride some movements again or ride the whole test again.
- Test n' Tell' sessions - in this 20 minute session you will have the opportunity to ride the test of your choosing in front of a qualified judge (also an EA coach), then receive coaching and feedback and the opportunity to practice movements. You can choose to ride any EA or EVA (eventing) test - PSG tests and above by request. $37 per session.
- Group poles lesson - 45 minute group lesson over poles - $37
- Group lesson - 45 minute group lesson - $37
- Private 30 minute lesson - $47
- Private 45 minute lesson - $60
- Ground Familiarisation - $27

A $9 TEC user fee is applied to all entries and a 5.5% Fee is charged by Nominate to use their services and will be added onto your entry fee.

What memberships do I need?

To take part in our training days you will need either a Dressage Tasmania or Equestrian Australia membership.

If you are a Dressage Tasmania member you will receive a discounted entry (applied at payment screen).
