WESTERN HORSE “B” SHOW RULES

1. Horse Show Association of Australia (HSAA) or Australian Quarter Horse Association (AQHA) rules apply except where TCWPC rules supersede (i.e., Club classes). Competitors to confirm from show program or committee, which affiliation rules apply to this show.
2. Every rider MUST be a member of TCWPC to compete or ride at an event. Temporary or day membership is available. All Members (full or temporary) are subject to the TCWPC Code of Conduct – located on our website).
3. Submission of an entry form binds the Owner / Competitor of the agreement of the conditions of entry and Competition. Parent or Guardian must submit youth entries.
4. The TCWPC Committee, Show Staff or volunteers will not be held responsible for any accident, sickness to any horse, owner, rider, handler or competitor, spectator or property.
5. Horses and those in attendance at the show, do so at their own risk.
6. All Youth competing or taking part in an approved event, must have written permission from their parent / guardian to be at that event as a contestant or participant (agreed to as part of your nomination forms). All youth competing or taking part in an approved event, must be in the care of a responsible adult who is in attendance for the duration of that event, whilst the youth attend that event.
7. A non-refund policy applies to this event; however, the Committee may consider a refund or future credit where a medical or vet certificate is provided, minus any applicable administration fees (i.e., administrative, prize or ground hire fee).
8. Competitors must bring their own yards, to be set up in the designated camping area unless otherwise specified. Pannels or electric tape are permitted – noting any damage caused by a loose horse will be the owner's responsibility to pay for.
9. All Rubbish and manure must be removed from camping areas and horse yards and moved to the specified area.
10. The show manager / secretary has the right to remove any person or persons from the ground, considered to be in breach of these rules and regulations or for any conduct deemed inappropriate by the organising bodies.
11. No alcohol is allowed in, or can be consumed in the marshalling areas, working arenas or show pen/contest areas.
12. At all HSAA / AQHA shows, on each day of the show, 1 hour prior to the commencement of the show and 1 hour after the cessation of the show, there will be no training equipment allowed in the immediate marshalling area and the performance area and dress requirements of cap/hat, long western style pants, safe enclosed footwear and a shirt with sleeves must be worn.
13. Exhibitors shall NOT approach the judge for any reason prior to completion of judging, unless the exhibitor has finished exhibiting and the request must be made through the ring steward or show secretary. No exhibitor will request information from the judge, or the decisions made by that judge concerning any exhibit at a show, on the day of the show or within the immediate 7 days following the show.
14. Competitor's / participants at any event run by TCWPC have a responsibility to ensure the welfare of their horses and at all times are to treat their horses humanely and with dignity, respect and compassion. TCWPC does not tolerate wilful abuse to horses. This includes obvious neglect, over training or improper training aids, and punishment. The committee (including appointed horse welfare officer) reserves the right to discuss any health and wellbeing concerns with the horse/s owner. All horses are in the care of the owners and handlers while attending the clinics and shows.

WESTERN HORSE “B” SHOW RULES

16. All riders under 18 must wear a helmet.

17. Competitors / participants are to demonstrate good sportsmanship at all times, showing respect for your fellow competitors and officials, following the rules and to treat people the way you yourself wish to be treated.

18. All competitors are required to wear a back number. – Back numbers will be provided to you by the club along with any competitor information. – Back numbers must be visible at all times i.e. – worn on your back (for led / halter events) or on both sides of the saddle blanket for ridden events. Please ensure back numbers are securely in place and do not move. – Each horse / rider combination must use a separate back number. – Failure to correctly display your back number will result in disqualification.

19. Stallions will be welcomed as per event announcement. All stallions must be secured adequately (i.e. panelled yards – not just tape). For in hand events, Stallions are to be shown with appropriate nose / lip chain as per HSAA/AQHA Rules. No youth are permitted to handle stallions.

20. The show management committee reserves the right to alter the program including order on the day, as required.

21. The TCWPC conditions of entry are to be abided by at all times.

22. This is not a comprehensive list, but a general overview of the main rules & regulations. This is supplementary to HSAA, AQHA or TCWPC rules and Membership.

23. Entries will open as per the event announcement / flyer.

24. Entries will close as per the event announcement. Giving enough days for the show committee to finalise paperwork, back numbers and run sheets. The show committee may accept late entries with a late entry fee, which will be advertised in the lead up to the closing date.

25. Entries will be accepted only via the nominate program or where otherwise specified.

THANK YOU AND HAVE FUN!
