V1 Versatility Challenge— Working In Hand

Horses should be shown in a plain leather or nylon stable halter without chains on the leads. (Note Stallions are exempt from this requirement as they MUST be shown in a bit or chain.)

Handlers may wear western, hunt or sport horse attire that is neat and conservative. Shirts must be tucked in and a belt must be worn. Any appropriate shoes or boots that allow the handler to move comfortably are allowed. Hats or helmets are optional. Long hair should be tied back and should not cover the exhibitor number if worn on the back. Crops or riding whips may be carried and used as a visual cue for the horse only.

Touching the horse with a crop or whip during the execution of a pattern is cause for elimination.
